WAR DEPARTMENT
Washington 25, D. C., 3 July 1944

War Department Pamphlet No. 13-169 Civil Affairs Information Guide, German-English Dictionary of German Administrative Terms has been prepared by the Library of Congress and is published for the information and guidance of all concerned.

[A. G. 461 (10 May 1944).]

By order of the Secretary of War:

G. C. MARSHALL,
Chief of Staff.

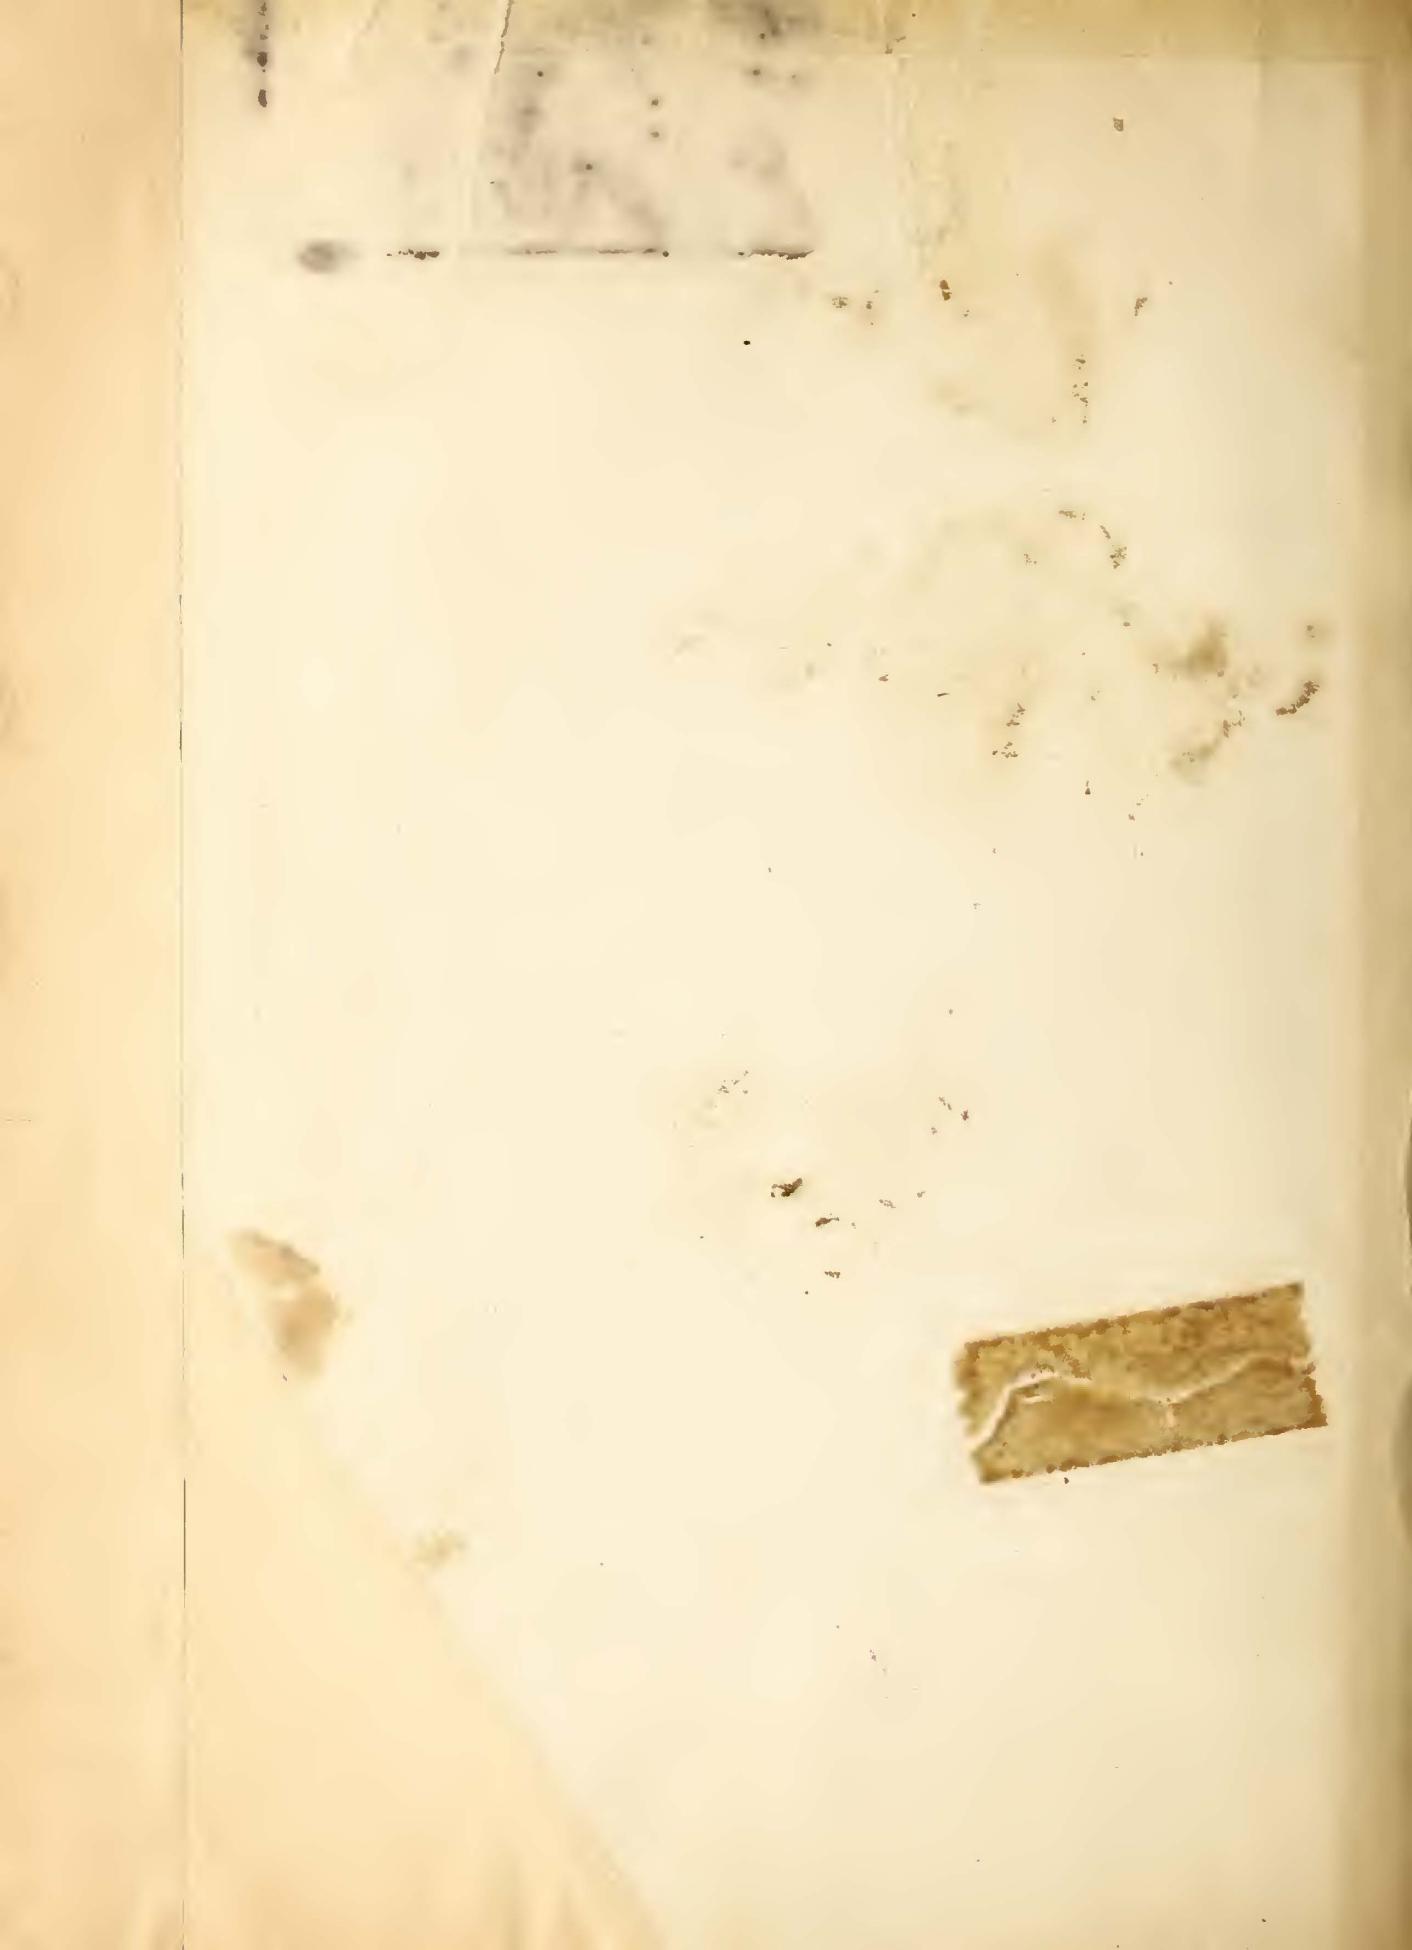

OFFICIAL:

J. A. ULIO,
Major General,
The Adjutant General.

RESTRICTED

This chart was designed with particular reference to the Civil Affairs Handbook on Economic Controls in Nazi Germany (ASF Manual M356 - 2T, 1 February 1944). It illustrates the relationships and relative positions of the various agencies mentioned in that Handbook.

It was prepared for the MILITARY GOVERNMENT DIVISION, OFFICE OF THE PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL by the RESEARCH AND ANALYSIS BRANCH, OFFICE OF STRATEGIC SERVICES.

INTRODUCTION

Under the Nazi regime new administrative terms have been coined and the meanings of many of the old administrative terms have been changed. For this reason the German-English Dictionary of German Administrative Terms is published for the use of Civil Affairs Officers in the field.

The material in this Dictionary was prepared by Dr. Otto Neuburger of the Library of Congress for the Military Government Division, Office of The Provost Marshal General.

OFFICERS USING THIS DICTIONARY ARE REQUESTED TO MAKE SUGGESTIONS AND CRITICISMS INDICATING THE REVISIONS OR ADDITIONS WHICH WOULD MAKE IT MORE USEFUL FOR THEIR PURPOSES. THESE CRITICISMS SHOULD BE SENT TO THE OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF THE LIAISON AND STUDIES BRANCH, MILITARY GOVERNMENT DIVISION, P.M.G.O., 2807 MUNITIONS BUILDING, WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

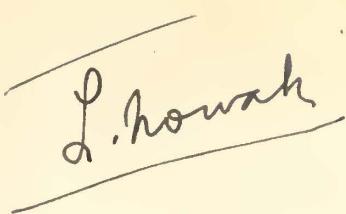

PREFATORY NOTE

1. This dictionary includes the following:
 - a. Administrative terms, at present in use, and their respective abbreviations.
 - b. Names of institutions and agencies, set up for public service now in existence (with short description of duties).
 - c. Germanization of foreign words used in or connected with civil affairs.
2. It is impossible to include all words used in administrative language under a dictatorial government dealing with all phases of life. For this reason, the following points should be noted:
 - a. An effort has been made to include new terms which cannot be found in ordinary German-English dictionaries.
 - b. Only the most important compounds of stem words are given (since the German administrative language is marked by compounds and the reader can thus trace other related compounds from the one given).
 - c. In those cases in which a word has several meanings, only those associated with administration are included.
3. The alphabetical arrangement follows the German order. It should be noted in particular that it does not treat the Umlaut as spelled out.

4. The following abbreviations are used after the term: abbr., abbreviated; adj., adjective; adv., adverb; e. g., for instance; f., feminine; m., masculine; n., neuter; pl., plural; v., verb. Within the bracket or the parenthesis the abbreviation RGB1. for Reichsgesetzblatt refers to the respective page of the German Law Gazette where the text of the respective law or edict is to be found.

In many cases cross-reference for specific details is given. In such cases the underlined word refers to the term where the translation appears (e. g., under Arbeitsgemeinschaft für deutsche Volkskunde the underlining of Volkskunde means that the translation and explanation of the whole term is given under Volkskunde).
